New Native Plants

Recently two of our students, Bethany and Anna, became Australian citizens. As part of their ceremony they were each gifted with a native plant. The girls decided they would like to donate their plants to the school. Last Friday Bethany and Anna planted these trees in the garden near the library. What a special way to celebrate becoming Australian citizens and such a thoughtful contribution to the school. Thank you Bethany and Anna!

Focus Groups for Parents – Thank you

Thank you to the parents who contributed to the Parent Focus Groups over the last few weeks. You gave us great feedback that will definitely be used in our planning process and help us to make a great school even greater.

Sports Presentation

Congratulations to all our students who have represented the school in PSSA teams and carnivals this year and made us feel very proud. Many students were recognised yesterday for their outstanding achievements in sport at a special assembly. A full list of award recipients can be viewed in the sports section of our newsletter. Many thanks to all our dedicated coaches and Lisa Carlton for co-ordinating PSSA and hosting such a fabulous sports achievement assembly.

Book Launch – Wind, Wave, Light

We have many published authors at Seaforth Public School! Last night it was my privilege to attend the book launch for our very own Wind, Light, Wave book that showcases authors from across our school and includes short stories and poems. Congratulations to every student that entered this competition and a special congratulations to those authors who were published in the book. It is a beautiful collection of works. Many thanks to Kel Cowling for running this competition and organising for the compilation of stories and poems to be published into a beautiful book that is illustrated by the students too. What a vast amount of talent we have at our school!

WIND.WAVE.LIGHT Book Launch

Well what a night it was! Something like 400 people packed into the Library, last night, for our big book launch.

And what a book! Congratulations everyone who contributed. So many people have spoken with me last night and today to say how beautiful a book it is.

We printed 150 of them, thinking it would be enough, but we are now officially SOLD OUT! But we will be going back to the printer next week to order a second printing. If you would like a copy (or another copy) of this beautiful book, place your order either with me in the Library, or at the Uniform Shop (the book is no longer up on Flexischools) by Friday of next week. If you do place an order by then, we expect the books to be available about a week later.

I'm sure everyone who has seen the book will agree: what a great Xmas present for Grandma and Grandpa it would make...

To contact me: drop in to the Library anytime OR phone me at the school on 9948 1694 OR email me at kelvin.cowling1@det.nsw.edu.au

Library Stocktake

The Library will be conducting a stocktake in Week 10 (the final week) of this term.

Notices will come home shortly advising you of any overdue books you may have. If you receive a notice and think there is any mistake, please let us know. A brief note on the overdue notice itself is probably the best way.

Music News

SEAFORTH Bupa/Piazza Xmas Performance

2017 has been a wonderful year of Music for our children at Seaforth Public School. In their weekly Music classes throughout the year, students have had many engaging experiences. Students have gained new skills, deepened their musical knowledge, grown in confidence and extended their creativity and collaborative learning.

Term 3 was very exciting with students enjoying interactive performances by the Musica Viva group 'Acoustic Odyssey' and in week 10, each student had the opportunity to perform in their class musical item at the Seaforth Spectacular Concert. Just last week, Seaforth students presented an outstanding performance of 'Shine Together' the 2017 Music Count Us In song. These performances were a wonderful reflection of the effort and achievement each student has put in during music classes and were brilliantly received and appreciated by the audiences at every performance.

Now, it is our turn to use these new skills and enthusiasm to give out to our community.

Over the last week of this term (11th – 15th December) each class will be doing a performance for either the residents of the Seaforth Bupa Nursing home or in the Seaforth Piazza for the wider community.

In their class groups students will be performing a set of Christmas songs and carols as well as some songs from the Seaforth Spectacular and/or Music Count Us In.

Students in 'morning' session Music classes will be performing for the residents of the new Seaforth Bupa Nursing home. They will also have an opportunity at the end of the performance to meet the residents and to give each resident either a Christmas card or small gift they have created in class. The morning session performances will unfortunately not be able to be attended by parents of the students.

Students in the 'middle' session Music classes will be performing in the new Seaforth Piazza. The Piazza community performance will start at approximately 12:50pm and should last for approximately 20 -30 minutes.

Seaforth Public School

37 Kempbridge Avenue, Seaforth 2092

Phone: 99481694

Web: www.seaforthpublicschool.com

Parents/carers/friends and relatives are all invited to the Piazza performances which will be held just outside the newly established Hipwood Café. So why not come along and enjoy a refreshment or light lunch and watch the performance as well!

We would love you to come along and support the students for the Piazza performances on any or all of the days!

Friday 17th November – Grand Finals

Both of our Boys' Eagle Tag A teams – Juniors and Seniors – played in Grand Finals in the PSSA competition. This is an elite competition, and to make a Grand Final is no mean feat.

The Junior Eagle Tag A Boys had an outstanding game, but went down by 5-2 to a very slick Harbord outfit. Anyone who saw the game will tell you just how much our boys put into it. Well done boys. Great season! We are very proud of you!

The Senior Eagle Tag A Boys had gone through the whole season undefeated, so we didn't want to lose this one. We came up against Manly West, and the game was in the balance for quite a while, but eventually we prevailed 8-4. Special mention to Henry, who was "Player of the Grand Final", and who scored our first four tries in the match! Outstanding effort Henry, and everyone else in this team too!

Sam Crawford and Kel Cowling
(Very proud) Boys' Eagle Tag Coaches

Three of the Girls' Eagle Tag teams played in Grand Finals in the PSSA competition. Congratulations on making the Grand Finals in this competition.

The Junior Eagle Tag A Girls all played really well and overcame a good Harbord team to win the Grand Final 3-1. Well done girls. Great season!

The Senior Eagle Tag A Girls played Harbord and lost 3-1. The girls might have lost but they gave 110%. Great year everyone and congratulations for making the Grand Final.

The Senior Eagle Tag B Girls played Balgowlah Heights and unfortunately lost 2-0. The girls tried their best and were happy to make the Grand Final. Great job everyone!

Today the junior cricket team played the senior cricket team in a friendly game. The boys had a great afternoon. Shout out to Mr Kydd for volunteering to coach the cricket team and to Miss Carlton for organise all the sport.
